THURSDAY EVENING, MARCH 10.

MISCELLANEOUS .- There is but one daily paper in the whole State of Delaware. The London Times, feeling the "pressure of the times," is curtailing expenses, and economising in the office, in every way. Baron Nathaniel Rothschild, a distinguished member of the famous family of wealthy bankers, died in Paris on February 19. Two more American steamers are now being broken up. One is the Fulton, of the old New York and Havre line, and the other is the Guiding Star, a sister ship of the ill-lated

Evening Star. Private dispatches have, it is alleged, been received announcing the failure of four or five leading cotton speculators of Liverpool and Manchester, with liabilities estimated at a mil-

decision as to Lady Mordaunt's insanity. Mr. Addington, once British Charge d'Afaires at Washington, is dead.

In the conference suggested by President Grant for the better protection of ocean telegraphic cables, the Austrian Government will be represented by Baron Von Lederer, Minister at Washington.

Since the 1st day of July, 1869, the Richmond, Potomac and Fredericksburg railroad company have issued to bona fide settlers, on the line of their road, between Fredericksburg and Ashland, upwards of fifty half-fare tickets to as many families. When we consider that the company issues these tickets are the set of the second of the seco the company issue these tickets only to such as purchase within five miles of the line of their road, it looks very much as though that section was "filling up.

COMMISSIONERS SALE OF VALUABLE REAL ESTATE IN UPPER FAUQUIER. In pursuance of a decree of the County Court of Fauquier county, Va., made on the 9th of September, 1869, the undersigned, Commissioners in said decree, will offer for sale to the highest bidder, before the Court House door, in Warrenton, Virginia, on TUESDAY, the first of March, 1870, being the second day of February County Court, the REAL ESTATE, in Fauquier county, owned and occupied by Col. S. J. Tebbs, at the time of his death, consisting of that well-known and most valuable farm called "GhASSLAND," situated about four miles from the Plains and Rectortown stations, on the Manassas Gap Railroad, and about the same distance from Middleburg and Upper-ville, containing about 425 acres of land. The improvements consist of a fine BRICK DWELLING, with seven rooms, besides finished basement and attic—servants' house, meat house, dairy, kitchen, corn-house, grand-ry and stables. The land is well enclosed and subdivided with stone and wooden fence; is well watered, has an abundance of timber, and is of the best quality of Fauquier land. There is no more desirable farm now in market in this

Also, the FARM adjoining "Grassland" known as W.W. Tebbs' farm, containing about 335 acres of land, of the same quality as "Grassland." The improvements on this tract consist of a good FRAME HOUSE, with four rooms and basement, stable, corn house, meat house, &c. It is also well watered, and has an abundance of wood. These lands will be surveyed before the day of sale, and plats of each farm, showing the shape, quantity of land, &c., can be seen by application to the undersigned.

Both these farms are rented for the present year, but the purchaser will be entitled to the landlord's share of the rent, or he may be able, by arrangement with the parties renting, to get immediate possession, if desired. The purchaser will have the privilege of seeding the land this

THE TERMS, prescribed by the decree, are as follows: One tenth of the purchase money in cash, and enough on the confirmation of sale with said tenth to make one third of the purchase money; the residue in one and two years from day of sale, to be secured by the bonds of the purchaser. All the deferred payments to bear interest from the day of sale. EPPA HUNTON.

C OMMISSIONER'S SALE OF A VALUthe Circuit Court of Fauquier county, made on the 9th day of September 1869, in the case of F. M. Young, Executor of Wm. Rawlings, deceased, vs. John D. Rogers, &c., the undersigned, as the Commissioners of sale therein named, will offer to the highest bidder, before the "Beveridge House," in the town of Middle-burg, on SATURDAY, the 29th day of Janu-ary, 1870, that beautiful farm, called "SPRING-FIELD," owned and lately occupied by John

D. Rogers, containing 386 acres.

This farm is situated on the Turnpike from Middleburg to The Plains, about 2 miles from the former and 6 miles from the latter place. It is of the best quality of Fauquier land; is well senced with stones and rails, well watered, a large portion of it well set in clover; has an abundance of the most valuable timber; a young orchard of choice fruit; is in a healthy. fine neighborhood, and is altogether about the most desirable farm now offered for sale in this section of Virginia.

The improvements consist of a comfortable STONE DWELLING, Kitchen, Meat House, Dairy, &c.

The decree authorizes us to sell either at private or public sale upon the following

TERMS, viz:—One-tenth of the purchase-money in cash, and so much more as with said one-tenth will make one-third of the whole purchase-money, to be paid on the confirmation of the sale by the Court, and the residue in two equal payments in one and two years; the deferred payments to bear inerest from the day of sale, and to be secured by the bonds of the purchaser, and retention of the title until last payment is made.
